Tributes

Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you, and before you were born, I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations. (Jeremiah 1:5)
And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. (Acts 2:21).

“I Love You Mommy...”

“...I Love You More. I would do anything for you.”

- Mommy

I will miss you Kelli and your tenacious pursuits. I love you.

- Dad

You are right Kelli, I am not your mother, nor your father, I am your brother, who wanted the world for you. I wanted it to be easier, I wanted to paved a path not for you to follow, but for you to be greater and more loved.

REFLECTIVE READING

Psalm 23: 1-4

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul.

He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

POEM

I will remember...
I will remember my heart's anticipation of you at age 8
I will remember your baby's glow and gentle smile, summoned to earth
I will remember your light that preceded you when you entered a room
I will remember your laughter at first with hand covering mouth and then later, a full-on grin
I will remember your kindness when there was a need
I will remember your mirth with small souls and their love of you
I will remember our sisterhood that blurred at times during your struggles, but never faltered
I will remember...you...love

Judi
To My Sister

'Kelli'

'There are some people in life that are BIG in stature and then there was little Kelli, whose persona commanded the room and whose LOVE of the LORD and others was simply GRAND.'

A woman in harmony with her spirit is like a river flowing. She goes where she will without pretense and arrives at her destination prepared to be herself and only herself.
