Her Legacy

Kim Teressa "T" McIntosh, Williams, passed away on April 13, 2024, in Tacoma, WA, at the age of 64. She was born on April 26, 1959, in West Virginia. Kim, known for her adventurous and eclectic spirit, was the best mother one could ask for. She was reliable, sociable, and animated, leaving a lasting impact on all who knew her. She is survived by her daughter, Toni McIntosh, her grandson, Isaiah Benjamin McIntosh, her older brother, Quincy Urouse Williams, Jr, her little brother Job Williams, her brother Clyde Williams, her nephew Jason Williams, and her little sister Karen Williams. Kim was preceded in death by her mother, Jerline Williams, and her brother, David Williams. Kim served in the Army for 2 years before embarking on a 15-year career as a practicing LPN. She provided compassionate care in nursing homes and private home health care settings, catering to individuals of all ages. Kim furthered her education in the Human Services field at Tacoma Community College and later transitioned into becoming a truck driver for Swift Trucking Company. She worshipped at Agape Christian Fellowship Ministries in Lakewood, WA, and found solace in recreational shooting, horseback riding, arts and crafts, card games, going to the movies, traveling, taking her Grandson places, enjoying her son in law's grill master ribs and steaks GregoryTurner, spending time with 'the group' of Stephanie, Kathy, Alonzo, E-D-W-A-R-D, DARRYL, Walter Stanford and many others. Furthermore, she enjoyed dining at fancy restaurants, and spending quality time with her loved ones, including her guinea pigs, canine and feline "grandchildren," and her cherished pet Jadzea.

Kim Teressa "T" McIntosh will be dearly missed by all who knew her. May she rest in peace.
